

The House Committee on Energy, Utilities and Telecommunications offers the following substitute to SR 402:

A RESOLUTION

1 Creating the Joint Telecommunications Comprehensive Reform Study Committee; and for 2 other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, the adoption of the Telecommunications Competition and Development Act of 4 1995 strategically positioned the State of Georgia to lead the nation in promoting growth and 5 development by encouraging investments in advanced telecommunications technologies,
6 embracing a new regulatory model, and assuring reasonably priced access to services 7 demanded by consumers; and

8 WHEREAS, a manifestation of the success of the 1995 Act is the fact that according to the 9 January, 2009 "High-Speed Services for Internet Access Report" released by the Federal 10 Communications Commission, the State of Georgia continues to lead the nation in the 11 availability of broadband services; and

12 WHEREAS, advanced telecommunications continue to be vital to the state's economic 13 growth and development, research, education, health care, and other vital services; and

14 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia can continue to lead the nation and enhance 15 telecommunications through the adoption of thoughtful and comprehensive reforms which 16 have taken into account technological advancements, the evolution of the marketplace, the 17 necessity of multijurisdictional coordination and cooperation, and the complexity of the 18 telecommunications industry in Georgia today; and

19 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia would once again benefit from the creation of a Joint 20 Telecommunications Comprehensive Reform Study Committee similar to what it did in 21 1994; and

22 WHEREAS, a Joint Telecommunications Comprehensive Reform Study Committee would 23 provide the appropriate vehicle through which the State of Georgia can identify the 24 appropriate comprehensive telecommunications policy reforms in order to continue to ensure 25 the state is positioned to enhance and embrace a vibrant telecommunications industry and 26 marketplace throughout the state.

27 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 28 GEORGIA that there is created the Joint Telecommunications Comprehensive Reform Study 29 Committee to be composed of eight members as follows: four members of the House of 30 Representatives shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House and four members of the 31 Senate shall be appointed by the President of the Senate. The Speaker of the House and the 32 President of the Senate shall each designate a member to serve as cochairpersons. The 33 committee shall meet on the call of either cochairperson.

34 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the study committee shall undertake a study and analysis 35 of the status of telecommunications policies including investment, economic development, 36 jobs, and all other matters related to the provision of voice, data, and video services. The 37 study committee shall also conduct a comprehensive analysis of intercarrier compensation,
38 universal service, interconnection, porting, and pricing flexibility, including, but not limited
39 to, the impact on Georgia consumers and companies.

40 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee may conduct its meetings at such places 41 and at such times as it may deem necessary or convenient to enable it to exercise fully and 42 effectively its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objectives and purposes of this 43 resolution. The legislative members of the committee shall receive the allowances 44 authorized for legislative members of interim legislative committees but shall receive the 45 same for not more than five days unless additional days are authorized. No allowance shall 46 be paid to other members of the committee. The funds necessary to carry out the provisions 47 of this resolution shall come from the funds appropriated to the House of Representatives and 48 Senate.

49 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that upon the completion of its study and analysis, the study 50 committee shall make recommendations for comprehensive reforms it deems appropriate and 51 in the best interest of the State of Georgia, taking into account any potential 52 multijurisdictional statutory and regulatory conflicts.

53 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the study committee is directed to make a report of its 54 findings and recommendations not later than December 15, 2009. The committee shall stand 55 abolished on December 15, 2009.
